Dear Don:

I am writing this very tardy letter to ask your forgiveness for not being able to appear at your Youth Rally during my last visit to California. My schedule by that time had gotten into such a mess that I didn't know where I was supposed to be next. Unfortunately, I had a Herald of Truth meeting in St. Louis on that Saturday that I could not cancel. It was an area-wide meeting that had been planned for some time. Even though I had made a definite commitment to you, there was nothing else I could do.

I deeply regretted not being able to come, and I appreciated your attitude through it. Please forgive me for allowing my schedule to become that confused. Also convey my regrets to your teen-agers who were so kind to talk to me on the phone when you called.

I trust your work is continuing to benefit the lives of many, many people. I appreciate so much what you are doing there and hope to see you this fall, if not sooner.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
